Employees Join in ALS Ice Bucket Challenge

A few brave employees joined in the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge initiated by Jean Brown, Med/Surg Unit Clerk. Not just a fun thing to do, the Ice Bucket Challenge has raised millions of dollars for ALS research. As of late August, The ALS Association has received $79.7 million in donations.

The four participating employees not afraid of a little water are: Aretha Hardy, Andy Moss, Jean Brown and Emily Delaluz. Thanks to the Maintenance Department for taking on the task of pouring the water!
